

Grange Park Primary School Year 4 Autumn 2 Spanish

Spanish: El ciclo de la vida. A circle of life.

Grammar

Nouns Nouns of animals in masculine and feminine in singular and plural; and habitat nouns. Definite articles in singular and plural.

Verbs Verb TO LIVE (in the 3rd person singular) vive. Negative of the verb too.

Culture

Top five traditional Spanish sweets for Christmas Carrot cake for Easter, pumpkin pie for Thanksgiving, gingerbread cookies for Christmas, and more... We could say that sweets and holidays go together like churros and cafe con leche. And speaking of sweets and holidays, are you familiar with some Spanish Christmas desserts? Let's explore the top 5: turrón, marzipan, mantecados, polvorón and roscón de Reyes.

ROCKALINGUA <https://rockalingua.com/>

User name Grangepark

Password morado

Key Sounds

J Z GU LL soft R GA QU

J In conejo (rabbit) and pájaro (bird)

Z In pez

GU GA In gusano (worm) and tortuga (turtle)

Soft R In rana (frog)

QU In bosque (forest) and estanque (pond).

Key Vocabulary

Spanish	English	Spanish	English
El conejo	Rabbit	La jungla	The jungle
El lobo	Wolf	El desierto	The desert
El pájaro	Bird	El bosque	The forest
El pez	Fish	La savana	The savannah
La serpiente	Snake	El mar	The sea
El mono	Monkey	El estanque	The pond
El gusano	Worm
La ballena	Whale	Vive	He/she lives
La rana	Frog	No vive	he/she doesn't live
La tortuga	Turtle
El	The
La
Los
Las

