

Grange Park Primary School Year 3 Summer 2 Spanish

Spanish: ¡Fuera de aquí! horrible monstruo verde! Go away! Horrible green monster.

Grammar

Nouns in masculine and feminine in singular and plural to talk about face parts. Adjective rules, such as adjectives in Spanish go after the noun. If the noun is feminine and the adjective used ends in -o, this -o is replaced for -a. First and third person of the verb TO HAVE (tengo, tiene)

Culture

La Patum de Berga in Catalonia

The fiesta of La Patum de Berga in Catalonia has been declared a Masterpiece of the Oral and Intangible Heritage of Humanity by UNESCO. The fiesta coincides with Corpus Christi and includes a whole series of theatrical representations, characters and figures that fill the town of Berga every spring. It is a religious commemoration that dates back to the Middle Ages, which has managed to preserve its religious roots.

ROCKALINGUA <https://rockalingua.com/>

User name

Grangepark

Password

morado

Key sounds

j ñ ll

j

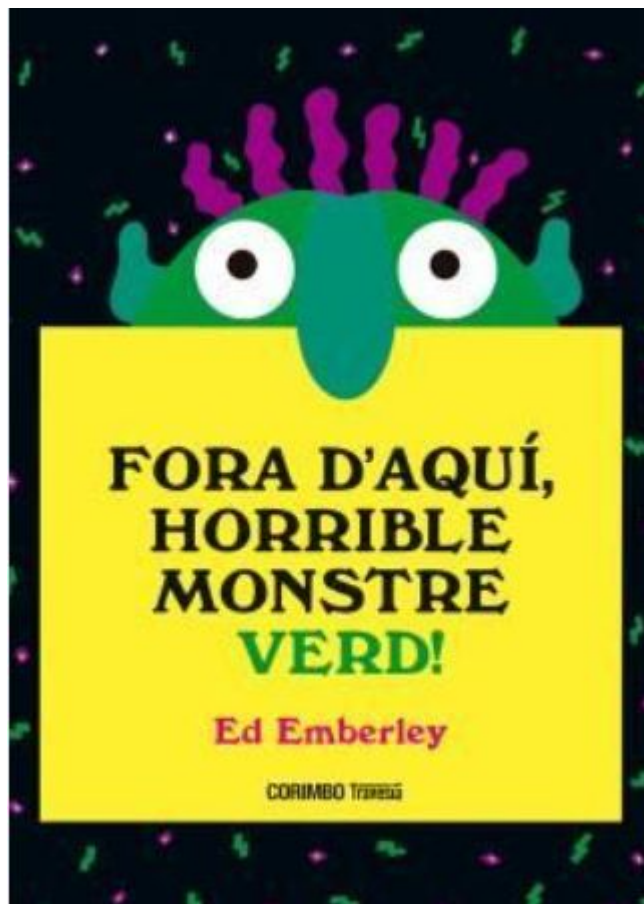

Sound in rojas and orejas (red and ears)

ñ

This changes the 'n' to a 'ny' sound like in the English word onion.

ll

Sound in amarillo (yellow)

Key Vocabulary

Spanish

English

Horrible monstruo verde.
Tiene
Tengo

*Horrible green monster story
he/ she has
I have*

El cuerpo
La boca
La cara
La nariz
Los ojos
Las orejas

*The body
The mouth
The face
The nose
The eyes
The ears*

